

Tom Ruthz Painting Course

This course will allow the student to learn techniques in painting and drawing in impressionism, abstract, and classical styles. Students will learn the step by step approach to mixing color, rendering light and shadow and how to complete paintings quickly and accurately.

Beginners and masters alike can improve their skills and develop new techniques in painting and drawing.

Supplies are available for purchase at Art & Frame, and are not included with the course. Please bring the materials you have in the medium of your choice, including, but not limited to; oils, acrylics, and/or pastels. Bring some brushes of various sizes, a cleaning cloth, and a palette. You may also bring pencils or charcoal for drawing, and a sketch book.

Tom Ruthz is a professional artist from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. He began his career as a painter with a focus in fine art, and has since traveled the world showcasing his portraiture and paintings in the Netherlands, Germany, England, France, and Italy.

He has taught in Sao Paulo for many years and has held workshops across Europe and Brazil. He now resides in Sarasota, FL where he focuses on contemporary art using acrylic, oil, and different textures on canvas.
