

“Encaustic Everything” Workshop with Shelley Jean

Encaustic painting is the process of painting with hot pigmented beeswax.

This technique is ancient, but has become increasingly popular with modern artists of today. Come delve into the versatility of this fascinating medium that invites you to experiment! Participants will learn about encaustic history, safety, surfaces, and fusing. In this comprehensive class we will be exploring a variety of techniques such as incising, image transfers, pigment sticks, mark-making, collage, mono-printing, and incorporating photos. All materials are supplied.
